

What Matters Most

May Zone Conferences

If some things matter not, or matter less, there must be things that matter most. In our efforts to do something or do anything, we might ask ourselves, “What mattereth most?”

Advertisers often use slogans such as “Essential” or “Must Have” in the hope of luring us to believe the product they are selling is necessary for our happiness or well-being. But is what they are selling really essential? Must we really have it? Does it really matter? -- Sister Becky Craven

See “that the things that matter most ...
are not at the mercy of things that matter least.”

--Ashley Montague

D & C 121: 34-35.     34 Behold, there are many called, but few are chosen. And why are they not chosen?

35 Because their hearts are set so much upon the things of this world, and aspire to the honors of men, . . . “

Rather than seeking approval of God.

First, a relationship with our Heavenly Father and His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, is most important. This relationship matters most now and in eternity.

Second, family relationships are among those things that matter most.

Third, what matters most is following the promptings of the Spirit in our most important relationships and in our efforts to love our neighbors as ourselves, including in our private and public ministries.

In these relationships we can testify of the things that matter most and last longest.

Doing What Matters Most Video (Elder Uchtdorf)

Satan would love nothing more than for us to misplace our eternal values, leading us to waste precious time, talents, or spiritual strength on things that matter not.

slow down, take a breath dive deeper into faith let go of the chains that weigh you down look up, to higher things so much distraction all around don't get lost in all the noise listen for the still small voice
what matters most
is to follow Him and believe
is to love someone in need
be still and know He will always keep us close
and show us what matters most so many things we chase will one day fade away and time is moving by so fast in everything we say and do let our hearts be set on truth and store up treasure that will last every day we have a choice to listen to the still small voice

what matters most
(what matters most)
(what matters most)

is to love someone in need be still and know He will
and show us what matters most show us what matters most

For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. -- Matthew 6:21
